A Proactive Approach to Inclusion of Individuals with Disabilities

By
Jennifer Taylor-Winney
July 15, 2020
Inclusion

- Inclusion is defined as transforming communities based on social justice principles in which all community members:
  - Are presumed competent;
  - Are recruited and welcomed as valued members of their community;
  - Fully participate and learn with their peers; and
  - Experience reciprocal social relationships.

(The National Center on Health, Physical Activity and Disability, 2020)
Understanding Scope

- 1 in 7 (14%) children ages 3-17 have a developmental disability.  (U.S Department of Health & Human Services, 2019)

- 1 in 4 (26%) adults in the United States have some type of disability.  (National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities, CDC, 2019)

- 2 in 5 adults 65 and older have a disability.  (National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities, CDC, 2019)

- Benefits of inclusion for youth with disabilities.
  - Higher academic achievement
  - Improved school attendance
  - Higher aspirations
  - Improved social competence
  - Improved Behavior

- Inclusion does not negatively impact the learning of other youth.

- Inclusion of adults with disabilities can reduce social isolation, encourage social engagement, increase physical activity.
Poll

Do feel you are more proactive or reactive to meeting the needs of individuals with disabilities in your programs?
Approaches

PROACTIVE

• Planning for inclusion throughout the entire process.
• Becomes an expected norm
• Energy efficient
• Serves a wider scope of individuals
• Promotes DEI

REACTIVE

• Planning for inclusion only in response to a request.
• Each instance needs priority
• Adds stress to Stakeholders
• May limit accommodations
Chat

• What are the most common accommodations you make in your programs for individuals with disabilities?

• Take 15-30 seconds
Poll

1. How easy or difficult is it to make accommodations
   1. Very easy
   2. Somewhat easy
   3. Neither easy or difficult
   4. Somewhat difficult
   5. Very difficult

2. What contributes to the ease or difficulty. (check all that apply)
   - Lack of training
   - Lack of time
   - Lack of support
   - Lack of resources
   - Lack of experience
   Quality Inclusion training
   Time to properly plan
   Positive support
   Resources are available
   Personal experience
Proactive Inclusion
Program Planning

1. Explore needs and assets
   ◦ Stakeholders voice
   ◦ Community collaboration

2. Craft your vision
   ◦ Be clear on your commitment to inclusion

3. Create your program plan
   ◦ Utilize principals of universal design

4. Evaluate your plan
   ◦ What worked, what didn’t ◦ Why?
Universal Design Principles

1. Equitable Use
2. Flexibility in Use
3. Simple and Intuitive Use
4. Perceptible Information
5. Tolerance for Error
6. Low Physical Effort
7. Size and Space For Approach and Use
4-H is the youth development program of our nation’s Cooperative Extension System and USDA. The PLWG encourages all Cooperative Extension programs to adhere to their Land-grant University nondiscrimination policy in the development and delivery of Extension efforts designed to engage all people.
Teaching

4-H is the youth development program of our nation’s Cooperative Extension System and USDA. The PLWG encourages all Cooperative Extension programs to adhere to their Land-grant University nondiscrimination policy in the development and delivery of Extension efforts designed to engage all people.
4-H is the youth development program of our nation’s Cooperative Extension System and USDA. The PLWG encourages all Cooperative Extension programs to adhere to their Land-grant University nondiscrimination policy in the development and delivery of Extension efforts designed to engage all people.
Equipment
4-H is the youth development program of our nation’s Cooperative Extension System and USDA. The PLWG encourages all Cooperative Extension programs to adhere to their Land-grant University nondiscrimination policy in the development and delivery of Extension efforts designed to engage all people.
Summary

- Proactive inclusion reduces barriers and allows a broader group to participate in programming.
- By being proactive in our efforts for inclusion we can help reduce the work needed to accommodate individuals.
- Being proactive sends a clear message that you are committed to DEI.
AEBC

- Incarcerated Youth
- Immigrant and Refugee Youth
- LGBTQ+ Youth / Community—recruiting new members
- Mental Health and Wellbeing—recruiting new members
- Youth Experiencing Homelessness
- Youth in Foster Care—recruiting new members and chair
- Youth with Disabilities—recruiting new members
- Youth Living in Poverty—recruiting new members and chair
- Racial and Ethnic Youth:
  - African American Youth—recruiting new members and chair
  - Asian / Pacific Islander Youth—recruiting new members and chair
- Latino Advisory Committee
- Native American Youth—recruiting new members and chair

If you are interested in joining a working group please submit an application at:

https://access-equity-belonging.extension.org/seeking-applications-for-champion-group-members-and-chairs/
Questions?

Contact info: Jennifer Taylor-Winney: taylorj@mail.wou.edu

IF YOU CURRENTLY HAVE INCLUSION POLICIES, GUIDELINES, PRACTICES, CURRICULUMS, OR SUCCESS STORIES PLEASE SHARE THEM