

NAEPSDP Professional Development Webinar

"Social network analysis: An innovative way to design and evaluate your programs"

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 2018, 2:00 PM (Central) (via Zoom)

Social Network Analysis (SNA) hasn't been used extensively by Extension professionals. Join this webinar to learn the basics of SNA as well as how to use it to help you in program development and evaluation, engagement of stakeholders, and reporting of impacts.

Presented by Dr. Anil Chaudhary, Assistant Professor of Agricultural and Extension Education in the Department of Agricultural Economics, Sociology, and Education at the Pennsylvania State University with a research focus on program evaluation, survey methodology, and social network analysis.
